Please Pray:

For peace across all nations. Let kindness and understanding, and a desire for concord, guide every leader and decision-maker;
for comfort for those who are mourning, may they feel God's love and presence, even in their pain;
for God's healing touch and His healing power for all who are unwell in any way;
for strength, patience & love for carers, looking after those who are suffering;
that the Lord will bless the work of The Leprosy Mission, October's Retiring Collection;
for those who lead the singing at our Sunday services and at weddings;
for more people to join our rotas, including volunteers for the livestream;
that the Lord bless will our community, especially everyone who lives in The Green & Horns Drove & all who work at the Motorway Services

If you have prayer requests, or if we can help in any way, please contact our prayer team via the office: 023 8073 8293 or by email. office@twinspires.org.uk

October's TwinSpiresNews is available from our Churches & online, celebrating the 170th anniversary of St John's Church. Save the date: Sunday 19th Oct at 10am - our 170th celebrations will include a special visit from the Bishop at St John's Church. Please send your news items to twinspiresnews@live.co.uk

Help Needed for Youth Clubs! Please Contact Ewan or the Office to volunteer and keep our Youth Clubs running this year.

NEW Alpha course starts 7th Oct, Tuesday @ 7.30pm in the Vicarage. Please let the office know if you, or someone you know, may like to join in.

This Week's Eco Tip: Use fallen leaves to make free mulch for your garden or potted plants. It nourishes the soil, keeps weeds down, and gives autumn waste a second life.

Quote of the Week by Corrie Ten Boom

"If you look at the world, you'll be distressed. If you look within, you'll be depressed. But if you look at Christ, you'll be at rest."
